In keeping with the open court principle of Canada's justice system, court hearings are generally open to the public unless a provincial or federal enactment or court order prohibits or restricts that access.

The following question is mandatory. Please consider your response carefully.

Are there any identified or potential privacy or confidentiality concerns involving this matter?

Yes              No

(If yes, the remainder of the form must be completed.)

PRIVACY OR CONFIDENTIALITY CONCERNS: Describe the nature of any concerns that you have regarding the privacy or confidentiality of information that may be involved in the hearing.

PRIVACY OR CONFIDENTIALITY MITIGATION: If you have identified any concerns, explain the proposed plan to mitigate the risks to privacy or confidentiality during the hearing including recommended steps to mitigate those risks.
