

EDMONTON REGION COURT RESUMPTION PROTOCOL PART 3

Effective: August 20, 2020

Circuit Point Re-opening

Circuit points in the Edmonton Region, with the exception of Ft. Chipewyan and Alexis are expected to re-open September 14th for docket and trials for Criminal, Family and Civil matters. Trials are expected to be presumptively running as previously scheduled at all Edmonton Region circuit points except Ft. Chipewyan where trials will be conducted remotely by agreement of counsel and the court. Alexis is awaiting the opening of the new courthouse. Matters will be heard in Mayerthorpe until the new courthouse is open which is anticipated to be approximately October 1. Please check with Stony Plain Courthouse on any matter scheduled for Alexis as to the location of the Court.

Criminal Court Dockets will run at circuit points, but participants are encouraged to appear remotely with the assistance of duty counsel whenever possible (Duty Counsel 1-855-670-6149). Adjournments by counsel and self represented accused and setting of trials are required to be done pursuant to the CMO Out of Custody Protocol by telephone or email 48 hours prior to the scheduled docket appearance date.

Family and Civil docket courts will run at the circuit points. Counsel and self-represented individuals have the option of appearing remotely by telephone or Webex if available by contacting the Clerk at the Base court and providing a contact number.

All participants, including counsel, witnesses, and accused persons, are encouraged to contact the base point associated with their circuit point in advance of their scheduled appearance date to confirm that the circuit point is open and operational as intended.
