

APPLICATION PROCESS FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE CANDIDATES

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST AND ELIGIBILITY

- Qualified lawyers who wish to be considered for appointment as a Justice of the Peace should complete a Justice of the Peace Candidate Information Summary which provides the basic data for the subsequent assessment of, or comment on the candidature by the Judicial Council. Applicants should ensure this form is completed in full and in accordance with the instructions provided. All information received is treated confidentially.
- Applicants must be a Canadian citizen and have a minimum of five years at the Bar.
- Applicants are responsible for providing their criminal record/police information check. Those with an unpardoned criminal record will not be considered.
- Applicants will not be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in connection with their application or with the interview process.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL REVIEW

- Judicial Council consists of the Chief Justice of Alberta or designate, Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench or designate, Chief Justice of the Court of Justice or designate, President of the Law Society of Alberta or designate, and two persons appointed by the Minister of Justice. Judicial Council is chaired by the Chief Justice of the Court of Justice. The names of the two members appointed by the Minister of Justice can be found at: <https://www.alberta.ca/public-agency-list.cfm>
- Judicial Council contacts the Alberta Law Society as part of their reference check to ensure there are no outstanding insurance claims or complaints against the applicant.
- Judicial Council interviews the applicant. Following the interview, Judicial Council provides the Minister of Justice with its recommendation as to the suitability of the applicant.
- The Ministry of Justice will advise the applicant in writing as to the status of their application (i.e. recommended/not recommended/not recommended at this time).

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

- An applicant approved by Judicial Council, must also be interviewed and recommended by the Nominating Committee before they can be deemed eligible for an appointment.
- The Nominating Committee consists of 11 members. It has representatives from the Court of Justice, the Law Society of Alberta, the Canadian Bar Association (Alberta Branch), other members from the legal profession, and public members. The names of the eight members appointed by the Minister of Justice can be found at: <https://www.alberta.ca/public-agency-list.cfm>.
- The Nominating Committee considers applicants on the basis of criteria such as integrity, professional excellence, community involvement, appropriate personal characteristics and representative of the population. The Nominating Committee will determine those applicants to be interviewed by them, and conduct interviews for the purposes of adding names to the Justice of the Peace Appointment Eligibility List. The Minister of Justice will select a name from the list to fill a vacancy. A recommendation will be made to the Lieutenant Governor in Council and, if there is agreement, an Order in Council is issued appointing the new Justice of the Peace.

Authorization for Disclosure of Information Concerning Candidate

I, _____
(First name/middle name(s)/surname)

of _____, Alberta, in consideration of the review and assessment of my application for appointment as a Justice of the Peace do hereby:

1. Authorize the Law Society of Alberta to provide to the Alberta Judicial Council, to the Nominating Committee and to the Alberta Minister of Justice full information respecting my membership in the Law Society of Alberta, including where applicable, information respecting complaints against my professional conduct, my insurance record, reports on my practice prepared by the Law Society of Alberta, any disciplinary proceedings taken against me or any records relating to a bankruptcy taken by me; and
2. Release, remise and forever discharge the Law Society of Alberta and its staff, the Alberta Judicial Council and their members, the Nominating Committee and their members, the Alberta Minister of Justice and staff, and all individuals consulted in respect of my aforesaid candidature, from any and all claims, causes of action, suits, actions and liabilities of every nature and kind whatsoever arising from, as a result of, or in any way related to the release of the aforementioned information, and/or the consideration and assessment of my said application and candidature.
3. Should I be a member of any other Law Society in Canada, I hereby authorize such similar body handling such matters in that jurisdiction to provide such information in sub-paragraph 1 and release all parties, including such similar body and staff as in sub-paragraph 2.

Authorization Concerning Reference Consultations

All information will be kept in confidence. The Nominating Committee consults widely, both within and outside the sources provided in this form and in making enquiries will make every effort to maintain confidentiality.

I understand that some or all of my listed references may be contacted. I further understand that discreet reference enquiries as to my suitability for a judicial appointment may be made to members of the community, Bar and Judiciary.

I authorize the Nominating Committee to make these enquiries. Given its wide consultations, I acknowledge that the Committee cannot, however, accept responsibility for any unauthorized disclosure of an applicant's name.
