

EXPANSION OF FAMILY LAW DOCUMENT FILING TO THE KING'S BENCH FAMILY AND DIVORCE FILING DIGITAL SERVICE

November 27, 2023

Commencing November 29, 2023 the King's Bench Family and Divorce Filing Digital Service will expand Family Law Act document filing to the Judicial Centres of Edmonton and Calgary.

Please note the King's Bench Family and Divorce Filing Digital Service is only available to lawyers and legal assistants.

For a list of accepted document types, please click here: <https://qb-filing-family.alberta.ca/>

Should you require procedural assistance please contact your local courthouse filing team.

If you are new to this service, you must first create an account. If you already have an account with any of the Kings Bench Filing Digital Services, please proceed to log in with your existing credentials here: <https://qb-filing-family.alberta.ca/>

For an overview of King's Bench Family and Divorce Filing Digital Service, general information related to the creation of an account, user guides, videos, or help please visit: <https://qb-filing-family.alberta.ca/help>.

Please note that the King's Bench Family and Divorce Filing Digital Service cannot accommodate filings for which payment is waived or from entities that do not currently pay a fee (i.e., fee waiver/Legal Aid Certificate, filings by Alberta Justice). These filings will continue to be accepted by email.