

Start something.

Re-imagining Alberta's Family Justice System

Based on Canada's National Action Committee on Access to Justice 2013 reports, and founded in the evidence of brain science, Alberta's Reforming the Family Justice System (RFJS) initiative strives to improve outcomes for families dealing with family issues.

Join Justice Rod Jerke of the Court of King's Bench of Alberta and Diana Lowe, KC, Re-imagining Justice and Co-Lead of the RFJS, to explore the strategy to bring about transformational change in the family justice system.

Thursday, October 12

12:15 – 2 p.m.

Bennett Jones Lecture Theatre and Online

Register at events.ucalgary.ca/law

Lunch provided on first-come, first-served basis

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
FACULTY OF LAW